

Applicator Re-Certification & Soil Health Workshop

Where: BIC Center in Arco
(159 North Idaho Street)

When: January 29, 2015
9:00 am to 3 pm

Who Will Be Presenting:

Marlon Winger, State Agronomist, Idaho NRCS

- Understanding the slake and infiltration test as an indicators of soil health.
- Managing for soil health by following 4 basic principles
- “How do I know if my soil is healthy”? Evaluating soil health and understanding the interactions between microorganisms the plant and the soil ecosystem.
- Case studies of soil health in Idaho. “What is your neighbor doing”?

Brad Gamett, Butte County Weed Control Superintendent

- Noxious weed identification
- Herbicide soil residual
- Insects - the good, the bad, and the ugly

Jesse Fullmer, District Conservationist, Idaho NRCS

- USDA-NRCS Programs

*Exact schedule to be decided

For REGISTRATION and to RESERVE A LUNCH
⇒ Call Frances at 208-527-8557 ext 101
(Please leave a message.)

Breaks and lunch
will be provided
FREE
by Irrigation Centers

